

2006 Lady Shooters

Coaches

Carlos Adams

Carlos played basketball at Pearl River Community College and William Carey College in Mississippi. Following college, he played pro basketball for six years in Europe and South Africa. He has coached in the Lady Shooters program for three years.

Tim Crossland

Tim, assistant coach and trainer, played four years of high school varsity basketball in Tenafly NJ. He has also completed the two-year College Trainer Program at Troy University. He is a National Registered EMT and a Georgia Licensed EMT. Tim has coached in the Lady Shooters organization for six years.

Doug Mabeus

Doug serves as the Lady Shooter's administrative coach. He has been involved in the Lady Shooter program for four years.

